BOND MARKET.

New York, Dec. 7.—Bond prices were buoyant in today's early dealings but buoyant in today's early dealings but the late reaction in stocks had a de-pressing effect on the late trading and closing prices were irregular. The de-mand embraced a much broader list, confirming the recent belief that the uncertainty regarding the government's financing, the terms of which were pub-lished today, had had a restraining ef-fect on business.

Atchison and Erie convertible issues, but gains of 1 to 1 1-2 points were quite common in other parts of the list, some of the more important being St. Paul 4's of 1925, Baltimore and Ohlo gold 4's and convertible 4 1-2's, Chesapeake and Ohlo convertible 5's, Wisconsin Central 4's. CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET. Chicago, Dec, 7.—Torrential rains interfering with the harvest in Argentina led to higher prices for wheat today. The market closed firm at 1-8c to 1-2c net gain with May $1.16 5-8 to $1.16 3-4 and July $1.08 1-8 to $1.08 1-4. Corn finished 1-4 to 1 1-4 up, cats at 1-8 to 1-403-8c advance, and provisions varying from unchanged figures to a rise of 5c.

Before news was received telling of unfavorable weather conditions in Argentins, the wheat market here ned shown a tendency to decline in sympathy with lower quotations at Laverpool. Bulls, however, were encouraged by a fresh advance in sterling exchange and by word of export business at the Gulf of Mexico. At this juncture, Argentuse advices became the dominating factor and continued so throughout the remainder of the day.
